Welcome to 2 Archibald Street, a home that has been loved and improved over the years. Properties this tidy, straight forward and well priced are in an all time high demand. The kitchen and living area has been opened up and is light and bright. There are three bedrooms and a central renovated bathroom. A seperate toilet is found off the good sized laundry. The yard is well fenced and is quite private. A double garage is also found on the property. This is an amazing opportunity for someone to enter the market and escape the rent trap. This home will serve you well
