14 Elizabeth Street Port Fairy VIC

3 1

Welcome to the simply amazing property that is 14 Elizabeth Street. This home is everything a beach house should be. It's welcoming, eclectic, warm, bright and most importantly, only a short stroll to the beach.

Featuring three bedrooms which are all a good size, the master has some exquisite French doors that open out to the yard. From the master, you can look out over the private and stunningly established yard. A central bathroom full of character fits the mould of the home sublimely. The hallway grants access to all bedrooms and bathroom as well as having a little nook which could be purposefully used as a study area.

The first and lasting impression you'll receive of this home will be the main living area and kitchen. It's a beautifully open plan area with an updated kitchen including stunning splash back, gas cook top and dishwasher. The cork floors are a favourite of mine and something that is making a
