Welcome to the amazing property that is 20 Dennington Rise, a perfectly laid out property which will entice any potential buyer.

As you enter the front door you are greeted by a great sized 2nd living room on the left, which lets in the beautiful afternoon sun and master bedroom on the right. The master bedroom is very spacious and has generous sized ensuite and walk in robe attached.

Following the hallway you will be amazed at how well the house opens up into the massive kitchen, dining, living area. This beautifully tiled area is spacious yet has a homely feel. With a huge island bench in the kitchen you do not feel tucked away at all and still can be a part of all the action going on in the rest of the common area. The kitchen also has a large corner pantry and plenty of storage. From this open space you will find a hallway leading to the east
