

89 Cramer Street Warrnambool VIC

3 1 1

Welcome to 89 Cramer Street, a well-maintained mid-century home that has been lovingly cared for by one owner over the past 39 years. The property has seen thoughtful updates throughout, making it both fresh and comfortable while still retaining its original charm.

From the street, the cottage façade is inviting and gives a hint of the character found inside. Step through the door and you'll find a space filled with period details, including decorative corncicing and high ceilings, which add to the home's warmth and appeal. A spacious extension at the back of the house has created a bright, generous lounge room with a lovely view of the neat flower and vegetable garden-perfect for relaxing or spending time with family.
